To whom it may concern,

On behalf of Sick Kids Foundation, I am proud to introduce MillionArtists.com Eugene Pik and Anthony Barker have set out to set a Guinness Book of World Records by inviting 1 million people to contribute to a single piece of art. As part of this project Anthony and Eugene have decided to donate a percentage of the money that they raise to SickKids Foundation.

Anthony and Eugene have worked with SickKids Foundation to develop a partnership where money raised through this project will be directed to support research being done at the Hospital for Sick Children.

Children embody all our hopes and dreams, which is why their health is of such vital concern. We are especially proud of the community whose generous support ensures that SickKids continues to be a place of healing, a place of learning, and a place of advanced medical research.

By participating in the MillionArtist.com project you will be taking part in setting a world record and supporting research that will have lasting impact on children across the globe.

If you have any questions about this partnership or SickKids please feel free to contact me directly at (416) 813-5225.

Sincerely,

Adam Starkman
